THE HICKMAN COURIER.

HICKMAN, KY.

FRIDAY, 1:1 AUGUST 31, 1888.

National Democratic Platform.

FOR PRESIDENT.

GROVER CLEVELAND,

OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.

ALLAN C. THURMAN,

OF OHIO.

THE Next State elections occur as follows: In Arkansas, September 3; Vermont, September 5;

Idaho, September 6.

It is a matter of fact that Thurman is the author of the first anti-slavery legislation in the country.

Harrison has quite a different record.

True Catholic News, published in

New York City, has come out squaring for Cleveland in a leading article entitled, "Pain Facts for Irish-Americans."

The Republicans have lost all interest in Harrison since Blaine, the unscrupulous, has made his triumphant entry onto these shores, and many are asking themselves,

"Who is our candidate?"

Hon. David H. Francis, Mayor of St. Louis, who has been nominated for Governor of Missouri by the Democrats, is a native of Illinois, and was reared in Madison county. His election will follow the nomination of course.

The people of the South seem to be unnecessarily alarmed on the subject of the yellow fever.

In all epidemics of the kind fear is the most efficient aid of prevention. Time far the disease will be called epidemic, even in Jacksville, Fla., where it is most prevalent.

In concluding his speech at Indianapolis, ex-Senator McDonald said: "From all the considerations mentioned, it is plain to plain that Indiana in the contest now approaching, will go over exclusively Democratic, and that Grover Cleveland will be our President for four years more.

The Michigan House of Represents held at Jackson, Mich., overed in a canvass of 45 assemblies only nine assemblies in which over twenty men for free protection, while in twenty-four there are no protectionists. His election will follow the nomination of course.

When you hear the Republican stump orators declaring that the triumph of the Democratic party will result in a reduction of wages and the protection of many industries, just go back four years and recall the fact that they said the same thing in 1884. It is just as true now as the results of Mr.

Cleveland's election have proved it was then.

The Democratic Campaign Committee will issue in a few days the President's Message, the first edition of the National copies. Judge Thurman's speech will also be issued by the author, and the message will be the commencement of the press, including
